Concerts Planned for the Convention/Clinic This Summer

The United States Army Field Band

Colonel Thomas H. Palmatier, Commander

Monday, July 27
8:00pm

Lila Cockrell Theatre

Army Field Concert Band and Soldiers' Chorus at the Joseph A. Meyerhoff Symphony Hall, Baltimore, Maryland

The Concert Band is the oldest and largest of the Field Band's four performing components. This elite 65-member instrumental ensemble, founded in 1946, has performed in all 50 states and 25 foreign countries for audiences totaling more than 100 million. The Concert Band regularly travels and performs with the Soldiers' Chorus, together presenting a powerful and diverse program of marches, overtures, popular music, patriotic selections, and instrumental and vocal solos.

Boston Brass

Sponsored by Jupiter Instruments, Inc.

Sunday, July 26 • 8:00 p.m. • Lila Cockrell Theatre

From exciting classical arrangements, to breathtaking vocal harmony, to burning jazz standards, Boston Brass achieves new levels in brass performance while treating audiences to a unique musical experience that captivates all ages. The ensemble's lively repartee, touched with humor and personality, bridges the vast ocean of classical formality to delight audiences to an evening of boisterous fun, exciting knowledge and an enthusiastic love of music, deftly exhibited by five brash brass players.
