

2009 Student Day a Success!

Added to the Convention/Clinic this summer was a day chock full of information for middle and high school students. Held on Monday, Student Day was expertly organized by Frank Troyka and sponsored by TBA.

Each student was offered a schedule to follow based on the All-State Music Audition Music session for their instrument. These 30 minute clinics featured practice strategies and suggestions for interpretation - excellent for those serious about the All-State audition process. Frank Troyka and his team (Christopher Adler, Ethan Galvan and Andrew Weak) presented three sessions on effective leadership, teamwork and how to promote deeper involvement. An additional session was presented especially for drum majors and conductors. The schedule allowed time for the students to visit the Exhibit Hall and attend the U.S. Army Field Band & Soldiers' Chorus concert.

1300 students from 100 different high schools in 60 cities across Texas attended Student Day.

Frank Troyka

The Texas Bandmasters Association wishes to acknowledge the truly outstanding work of Frank Troyka who masterfully devised a schedule for these students to get the most out of their day at the TBA Convention/Clinic. Plus, he greeted the students at the 8:00 a.m. orientation, taught four leadership sessions during the day and finished with a closing session on inspiring others to follow your lead. Frank, you have inspired us as well!
