

Conn-Selmer Education and University of Notre Dame Partner to Provide Grant Proposal Training for Music Educators in Texas

Wednesday, July 25 • 8:00 am - 5:00 pm • Room: CC 217D

The Conn-Selmer Division of Education has teamed up with The University of Notre Dame, Mendoza College of Business to offer a 2-day intensive certification course on Grant Proposal Writing for TBA, TCDA and TODA members! During the seminar, attendees will learn the step-by-step process of putting together a grant proposal. Sessions will cover understanding the grant seeking process and all the steps included from defining clear objectives, putting all the pieces together, and sustaining relationships with funders after the grant proposal submission. This unique and hands on seminar will be led by Dr. Angela Logan, St. Andre Bessette Director of Nonprofit Professional Development, Associate Teaching Professor of Management & Organization in the Mendoza College of Business at The University of Notre Dame.

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN, BUT SPOTS ARE LIMITED. The course fee is $199 and includes registration, textbook, University of Notre Dame Certificate (12 hours) and a continental breakfast. For more information and TO REGISTER, visit <http://bit.ly/txgrantcertification>.

UNIVERSITY OF
NOTRE DAME

