The Jazz

Educator's Handbook

by Jeff Jarvis
& Doug Beach

illustrated
by Steve Wiest

"Jeff Jarvis and Doug Beach have taken a deep breath and put together the industry's most comprehensive, yet accessible guide for jazz educators. I wish this book had been available when I began my teaching career because the information it contains could be gathered only from years of experience."

Nat Slater, Director of Jazz Studies at the University of North Texas

Introducing the most comprehensive, how-to handbook ever published for jazz educators!

271-page text with 2 CDs featuring:

- easy-to-understand text
- loads of notated examples
- over 150 recorded tracks
- unique illustrations
- photographs
- set-up diagrams

"This new book incorporates everything the school band director needs to know about running a successful jazz program. The musical examples isolate and address key phrasing problems encountered by every jazz band. A great primer for all band directors!"

Janey Aeborsolt

"Two giants in the field of jazz education have teamed up to provide band directors with a user-friendly guide on the mechanics of building and maintaining the jazz area of their program. Highly recommended!"

Jim Culbertson, Director of Bands
Decatur MacArthur High School, IL

"There isn't a topic or remedy left out. This book should be on the shelf of all musicians, from jazz professionals to the big band director whose closest jazz experience is playing bassoon in 'The Firebird.'"

Dennis DiBlasio, Executive Director
Maynard Ferguson Institute of Jazz Studies
Rowan University, NJ

Jeff Jarvis has an impressive list of composing and trumpet performance credits including Lou Rawls, Henry Mancini, Doc Severinsen, and Louis Bellson. He has made six critically acclaimed recordings as a solo jazz artist, is a Yamaha clinician, directs the Central New York Jazz Orchestra, and is Kendor's CEO.

Doug Beach has built a career that includes performing (trumpet), teaching, publishing and composing. In 1975 he formed the publishing company which bears his name. Soon after he joined the faculty of Elmhurst College (IL). Since then his jazz bands have toured Europe and appeared with Clark Terry, Diane Schuur, Louis Bellson, Bobby Shriver and others.
