SO YOU THINK YOU CAN'T SPIN?

Critical yet basic colorguard information compiled for smaller A, AA, and AAA marching band directors.

...directors will leave this workshop with skills and confidence to make their guard an asset with or without an instructor.

HOW TO TRAIN YOUR COLORGUARD WITHOUT AN INSTRUCTOR
Basic skills, combinations, and progressions
Writing/Choreography made simple
How to be musical vs. technically overwritten

HOW TO FIX AND OR ENHANCE DRILL DESIGN AND TRANSITIONS
Customizing your already written drill based on YOUR needs
Staging equipment and prop changes that don't detract from your show
Basic staging/layering techniques to elevate your guard (and your score)

HOW TO BE MUSICAL VS JUST DOING COLORGUARD FOR COLORGUARD'S SAKE
You already know how to do this… apply same principals as your wind band
Teaching musical skills to the colorguard (breathing, articulation, phrasing, balance/blend)
Augmenting what you already do well to maximize visual musicality

*You hear what you see and see what you hear, so let’s have the colorguard work in tandem with the winds and percussion to enhance your overall program!

STUDENT AND DIRECTOR DEMONSTRATIONS: TRAINING AND WRITING MADE SIMPLE
Basic skills that lead to combinations and progressions
Using the musical score to dictate counts and musical styles and applying to these progressions to create your own choreography
Varying and altering for contrasting styles
Varying number of performers and body facings
