Give me more information:

What?

A flipped classroom: a blended type of instruction where students learn concepts by participating in an online classroom (watching videos, listening to podcasts, doing online activities) and then demonstrate their new knowledge when they are in class at school.

Why?

By learning independently, students can:
1) Access concept information as much as they need to (pause, rewind, rewatch/listen - AWESOME for ELL students!)
2) Develop great independent learner skills!

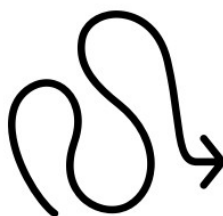

Benefits

1) Concise and efficient lessons
2) Consistent instruction from class to class
3) The opportunity to teach "perfect" lessons for your students!

This type of instruction fosters:

- Creative and thoughtful teaching
- Students destined to be lifelong learners

TECHNOLOGY USE IN YOUR CLASSROOM THAT ACTUALLY HELPS YOUR STUDENTS

TECHNOLOGY THAT IMPROVES WHAT YOU
ALREADY DO

NOT technology for the "checkmark"

What can I create?

ONLINE INSTRUCTION?

Online instruction is fun for you and for students, efficient, and expected by administrators.

Use it to expose students to their potential of being an independent learner!

Get the whole family involved

Teach "perfect" lessons and become your own co-teacher!

Help new students feel better faster

Think "big" concepts that you want taught "perfectly"

Be consistent
